Bethel
At the Heart of Senior Living

About Bethel Springvale Inn

Bethel Springvale Inn offers affordable, assisted senior living at its best. Active seniors enjoy wonderful amenities, accommodations and wellness resources in a setting that promotes independence while offering any needed clinical and personal support.

Gourmet dining, fireplace lounges, events, shopping classes, and music groups are just some of the features offered at the 125-bed residence located in picturesque Croton-on-Hudson.

Residents truly do enjoy a life that is free from worry and isolation.

When to Consider Assisted Senior Living

Assisted Living can be the perfect solution for seniors who are tired of dealing with the hassles of home ownership and/or who want the security of living in a community setting with onsite access to clinical services.

Residents can receive a range of personal and clinical assistance such as escort accompaniment, help with bathing, medication management and chronic illness treatment, among other services.

Why Choose Bethel?

The Springvale Inn is the most affordable assisted living residence in Westchester County. Offering a range of services to ensure optimal day to day experiences for all residents, the Inn has been providing resident-centered services to Bethel seniors for over 40 years!

In addition, located beneath the Inn is a retail center which includes a post office, bank, beauty salon, physician, dentist and deli. This easy access is a great convenience for residents.

Also, should residents need a period of inpatient or outpatient rehabilitation, Bethel's skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Center is just across the street, with transportation provided to and from rehabilitation.
