

Janice Sipe Named Volunteer of the Year

VMRC Volunteer Services is pleased to announce Janice Sipe as the 2021 recipient of the Claude Hess Distinguished Service Award!

Janice has served as a VMRC volunteer at the Main Street Store for nearly five years and has contributed more than 4,000 hours in a leadership capacity.

She has been the backbone of the Main Street Store and takes tremendous pride in offering a pleasant atmosphere and shelf items that appeal to the target audience.

Janice's steadfastness throughout the Covid-19 pandemic ensured that a critical service was provided to our campus. She adapted and readapted multiple times with a can-do attitude! Her dedication and cheery disposition are valued and appreciated by residents and staff alike!

Congratulations, Janice, on this well-deserved recognition!
