“The Space Between: A Christian Engagement with the Built Environment”

Randy Seitz, Architect, Harrisonburg, VA

Thursday, May 9, 2019 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Detwiler Auditorium, VMRC

The Format: A thoughtful presentation will be shared, followed by two invited responders and then open group dialogue, to discern its resonance with vibrant Christian faith.

Presentation Synopsis: The making of buildings provides ample opportunity to demonstrate the content and consequences of our Christian faith. From the utilitarian to the aspirational we will look at the demonstration of Kingdom values across three areas - housing, urban planning and churches. We will look at the impact that the making of a building has on the physical, psychological and spiritual dimensions of the people who build, occupy and use them.

Speaker Biography: Randy Seitz, licensed architect and contractor, is the founder of Blue Ridge Architects and owner of Blueline - a construction management firm. A Harrisonburg native, Randy obtained his architecture degree from Virginia Tech and attended Eastern Mennonite University. Randy and his wife Patsy love to travel, camp and play highly competitive Scrabble.

Responders: Wallace Hatcher, Retired CEO Lantz Construction Co. and Resident of Park Gables, VMRC
Dee Weikle, Associate Professor of Computer Science, JMU

Moderators: Roman Miller (romanjaymiller@gmail.com)
Richard Bowman (rebowmanmail@gmail.com)
