

Grief, Loss and Compassion Fatigue

Presented by Lindsey Pelletier, RN, BSN, CHPN, Our Lady of Peace Hospice

Caring for someone with dementia can cause us to confront difficult emotions such as grief and loss. As a hospice worker, Lindsey can provide insights to help you explore grief and loss as it relates to your role as a caregiver. She will also share strategies for self-care and maintaining balance, and help you to understand various signs and levels of grief so you can better navigate your journey in caregiving.
